

EXAMPLE INQUIRY

STRATEGY OR FUTURE DISCOVERY

This is an example inquiry used for strategy planning or future discovery. The Sprockler user wants to know what is likely to happen in the future and how they can account for it.

STORY QUESTION

1. Can you share a story about an experience you have recently had that you consider will likely happen more often in the future? The experience can be positive or negative. Please be as detailed as possible in describing what happened. (open question)

...

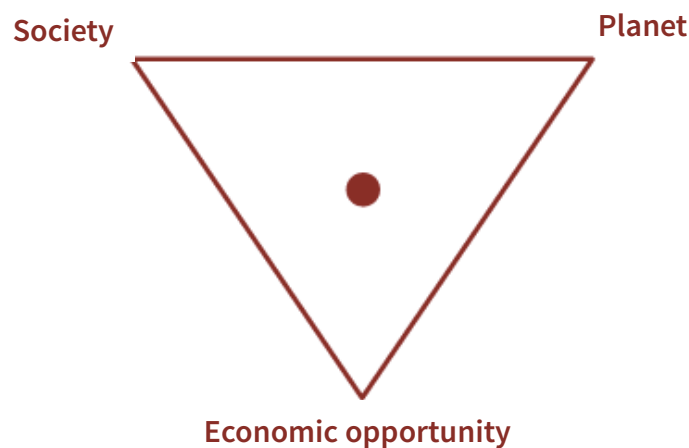

INTERPRETATION QUESTIONS

The following questions are about the story you just shared.

2. The tone of my voice is ... Place a dot at the point on the line that best corresponds with your answer. (bipole question)

3. My story was mainly about ... Place a dot inside the triangle where it best corresponds with your answer (tripole question)

4. Who were involved in the story you just shared? It is possible to select multiple answers. (multiple choice question)
- Community members
 - Youth
 - Security actors (police)
 - Local government
 - National government
 - Religious leaders
 - NGOs
 - Armed groups
 - International actors, such as EU, UN
 - Other, namely ...
5. In what time scale do you consider this experience to start happening more frequently? (bipole question)

6. If your story would be published in a newspaper, what would be the headline? (open question)

...

CONTEXT QUESTIONS

The following questions are no longer about your story, but about your experiences and thoughts about the future in general.

7. Out of the following identified trends, which three are most important for you? Select them by clicking on the arms of the mind map. (mind map question)

8. Do you consider the organization to be future fit for developments like the one you described and others? (bipole question)

9. In order to be most future fit, what is one thing the organization has to start doing or do differently according to you? (open question)

...

CLASSIFYING QUESTIONS

Almost done! The last few questions are about you.

10. What is your age? (numeric question)

11. Where do you live? Please indicate on the map. You can use the + and - button to zoom in and out. (geolocation question)

