Sprockler LIVE

Sprockler has a fully integrated Data Collection and Visualisation Modules. During “Sprockler LIVE” sessions people interview each other, share their stories and responses. While the stories are being submitted, the results are immediately visible in the Visualizer, waiting to be interpreted by the audience. Data collection and interpretation can take place in the same session. Once the responses to the inquiry are in, you can immediately look at them together and give meaning to what you see. This is possible with groups from tens to hundreds of people. Ask us for more information about these very exciting sessions.

Need support?

Sprockler is highly user-friendly and makes it possible for you to create your own inquiry. For optimal use of the tool, you can make use of the knowledge and expertise of the Sprockler resources and expertise.

FREE RESOURCES

Use the manual, FAQ and Cases that are available on our website for learning and inspiration. You can also have a look at the open published reports by other users. Database for story-questions, bipoles and tripoles.

TRAINING

We offer regular 1 or 2-days Open Trainings, which are announced under News Items, where you also find information on costs.

Many organisations are asking for in-house training. The standard package is a 2-days course for €350 per participant. We teach the technicalities of the tool and give you important process design tips. How Sprockler is used is as important as knowing the tool itself.

CONSULTANCY

We can carry out the Sprockler project for you, and do the design, data collection and reporting with and for you. Some organisations do everything themselves, others don't have the time or interest, but still want to benefit from the great insights that Sprockler can bring.

We can help design the inquiry, put it on-line, conduct technical tests, support communication to target respondents, train interviewers (in case of field collection), monitor data-collection, preparation of interactive report, facilitate sense-making workshop and/or data-analysis, draft story of stories (reporting on patterns).

Contact us, if you want our advice.

STARTERS PACKAGE

For your first project, it is quite possible that you to want to create it in consultation with the Sprockler team. For this purpose we offer the possibility of buying a starters package. For €3.795 we help you go through the whole process. This includes a credit for 1 full inquiry with all options. We don't do it all for you, but make sure that everything goes well, from a technical and process point of view. And that you will end up with a beautiful interactive report.

Sprockler LIVE

For your event or occasion where you are bringing people together and wish to get their voices heard. So that experiences are shared and views are expressed. We facilitate these sessions, using the Sprockler app, and tap into the wisdom of the people present. Firstly, by collecting their stories and interpretations, and secondly by making sense of all stories / data together. The Sprockler Visualizer enables you to have a look at emerging patterns instantaneously.
